GLOBE PLEASES DENVER JURIST

Judge Mullins Says It Beats any Mining Camp in State of Colorado

"Everything in Globe and around Globe looks mighty good to me," said Judge John I. Mullins of Denver, who is in Globe on mining business. "It's a little bit slangy to express it that way, but it's correct nevertheless. I've been around here for several days and what impresses me so much is the substantial character of the town. You know I'm from Colorado, the home of mining camps, and while I'm not a knocker, I've got to take my hat off to Globe. You can beat any mining camp we've got. The character of your business blocks and fine residences gives the town a permanency that is bound to make it one of the leading towns of Arizona. I won't attempt to comment on your mining resources. They are marvelous. The plant of the Old Dominion is a model."

"I see that the Arizona Silver Belt is advocating the formation of a chamber of commerce. This is a very important organization in my opinion in this stage of Globe's development. You ought not to 'hide your light under a bushel,' and united action under an organization is the proper thing. I believe in boosting, and you have something here worth boosting."

Judge Mullins is the president of the Apache Consolidated Mining company and has been spending some days here in the interests of that company. While he was not disposed to give details he promises that extensive development will be begun on these properties within the next sixty days. The judge is a newspaper man and a member of the Denver Press club, noted as one of the greatest organizations of newspaper men in the country. Last summer the Denver club entertained the international association in a manner never equaled before.

DEATH OF MRS. FRANK SIEGLITZ YESTERDAY

Mrs. Frank Sieglitz passed away yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the effects of blood poisoning, leaving a two-week-old infant child. The death of Mrs. Sieglitz is especially sad as she was thought to have been improving, her mother leaving a few days ago for her home in the Aravaipa country, assured of her daughter's recovery. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

Mrs. Sieglitz was formerly Miss Alma Haby and she was married to Mr. Sieglitz, who is one of the proprietors of the Monarch clothing store, not two years ago. Beside her husband and child she leaves a sister, Miss Bertie Haby, and a brother Lee, both of whom are in Globe. Miss Haby came here several weeks ago from the normal at Tempe to visit with her sister.

The death of Mrs. Sieglitz is sincerely regretted as she was a young woman of fine character and many friends, all of whom will mourn her untimely demise.

BAILEY BLAMES HEARST FOR ALL

Weeps as He Tells Investigating Committee of Political Persecutions

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Texas, February 22.—The house committee voted to close the Bailey investigation Friday afternoon, but there was a deadlock in the senate committee. The house committee adjourned until Saturday morning. Bailey made his closing statement during the afternoon, in which he said the investigation was the result of a political conspiracy for which he charged that Hearst was responsible. Bailey characterized the charges as brought by Representative Cocke as being calumny. He wept as he told of alleged persecutions by his political enemies. He claimed that President Sam Houston had been persecuted and that Stephen F. Austin had been driven into retirement by the persecutions of political enemies in Texas. Present indications are that the investigation will be transferred to the floor of the legislature.

Globe's New Church

The stonework of St. John's handsome Episcopal church building is about to be discontinued, leaving the tower in an unfinished condition. So far the cost of building and materials is over $5,000. Work on the roof will be commenced in the near future and the flooring and plastering of the building will follow with as little delay as possible. Rev. George Selby thankfully acknowledges the timely aid extended to him by some of the people of Globe and others.
